

wines from Livio's family vineyards

Maroggia DOCG 2012

Smokey purple/garnet color. Layered nose of cherry, ground spice, minerals, mushrooms, leather and herbs. The palate is quite vigorous but still very smooth with great acidity and dryish flavors of jammy strawberry and cranberry hung in a burly but still quite fine structure. Nebbiolo in a different mode...

Sforzato DOCG 2011

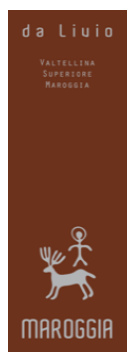

Vinification drying of the grapes in the fruit room for 60 to 70 days. 15 to 17-day maceration in fermentation barrels of 130 hl. Character Dense, intense ruby; a fascinating nose with quince, black currant, bergamot; full-bodied despite considerable tannin potential. Very characterful, self-contained, with never-ending length.

Custantin 2013

This is white wine made with two red grapes, Nebbiolo, Rossola and one white, Chardonnay, very fresh fruity taste with a little carbonation. The name of this wine is a tribute to Livio's grandfather who worked in the family vineyards until 90 years old, CUSTANTIN was his nickname.
